If your admissions officer or college department advisor has told you that you must take certain coursework as a prerequisite for admission, you are eligible to be considered for loans only from the Ford Federal Direct Loan program.

Prerequisite coursework qualifications:

- You are eligible only once in a lifetime to receive loans based on prerequisite eligibility status during a consecutive 12-month period.
- You must have an official, current Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on file with the Office of Student Finance (OSF).
- You must be enrolled at least half time (6 credits) in required prerequisite undergraduate courses at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, each term.

If you meet the above qualifications, take the following steps:

1. Complete SECTION A, Student certification, including your signature.
2. Complete SECTION B, Prerequisite coursework required, with your admissions representative or academic department advisor. List all coursework required for admission into your degree program.
3. Have your advisor complete and sign SECTION C, Advisor's certification, certifying that all the courses listed in SECTION B are required for your admission into the program named in SECTION A.
4. Return the completed form to a One Stop Student Services location to one of the locations or the address above.

To complete online, open in Adobe Reader (free at Adobe.com), not a Web browser, to protect your private information. Place the cursor in a field and type. Print each page when completed. Add the required signature(s) in blue or black ink.
