U Wide Form
UM 1502

Rev: 05/13

Purpose: University of Minnesota campus, collegiate, and administrative units may certify that certain academic employees and their immediate family members, civil service, and represented bargaining unit employees are eligible for resident tuition rates by completing this form. The original form should be presented to the Registration Center when the individual or immediate family member registers. If registering online, the employee must still submit the form to the Registration Center. The employing department and the employee should retain photocopies.

Eligibility: Resident tuition privileges are available to employees (and their immediate family members) on the basis of appointment classification and percentage of appointment. Neither the employees nor their immediate family members accrue extended resident tuition privileges except as noted.

Academic Employees: Academic employees or fellows (and their immediate family members) who hold appointments in classes 93xx, 94xx, 96xx, 97xx, 9540, 9546, 9548, 9552, 9555, 9556, 9560, and 9569 must hold 75 percent appointments for the entire term of eligibility. Academic employees or fellows (and their immediate family members) who hold appointments in classes 9545 and 9558 must hold a minimum of a 25 percent appointment for the entire term of eligibility. They must also receive a salary equivalent to at least a 25 percent graduate assistant appointment at the current hourly salary range or work 195 hours per semester if on an hourly appointment.

Graduate Assistants: DO NOT COMPLETE THIS FORM. Contact Graduate Assistant Employment Services for eligibility requirements. Phone: 612-624-7070 or Email: gaesinfo@umn.edu

Civil Service/Represented Bargaining Unit Employees: Civil service/Represented bargaining unit employees holding appointments in classes lxxx-8999 must hold a minimum of a 75 percent appointment for the entire term of eligibility.

Note: Please complete Verification of Appointment for Resident Tuition application once each semester. Forms will be audited each term. Participants found ineligible will be reassessed tuition at nonresident rates, if applicable.
